The LUXFactor Group is thrilled to be working intimately with Gosport Borough Council on its recently awarded national status grant from the Home Office for its further development of the councils Community Safety Partnership.

The LUXFactor Group will be providing, full support for a multi-media styled meeting for the community of Gosport entitled "Have Your Say on Crime" This being one of many "Have Your Say Events on numerous topics of concern. From Lighting and sound to staging, camera crews and presentation facilities, LUXFactor have secured the contract to provide it all.

Additionally from LUXFactor Client Management BBC Broadcast presenter Sally Taylor will host the panels question and answer session in a "Question Time" style approach with the advantage of an audience electronic voting system for the questions asked, and Julian Knight-Jones will Technically Manage the event. Julian is an international Sound Designer foremost, but is also an outstanding Technical Director too, and LUXFactor is very honoured to be able to represent such fantastic creative people.

"This is truly fulfilling the brief of my original concept of The LUXFactor Groups ethos" stated its Managing Director Michael D.. Finch. "We are truly proud to be working with the Community Safety Team at Gosport Borough Council, and have had less than a month to film activities, edit tapes, create a staged activity and facilitate Public Relations for them" My team of highly experienced experts from all aspects of creative industry and broadcast have pulled out all the stops for this project, and we are all looking forward to the event itself – it should be something very memorable for all the right reasons too!"

Members of the panel will include the area Chief Inspector of Police, a High Court Judge, the leader of the Borough Council and others, all of whom are leading partners in the Community Safety Team.

The event itself takes place at Brune Park Community College on Wednesday August 26th 2009 from 7pm and is hosted by Sally Taylor MBE. Further information can be drawn down from the Gosport Borough Council website.
